5. [] Called J. Sourwine, Chief Counsel, Senate Judiciary Subcommittee on Internal Security, in response to his request concerning commercially available tape recorders. I told him apparently, the Zuiko Pearl Corder was an excellent pocket-sized tape recorder that is commercially available in Japan.

6. [] Called Chris Clary, in the office of Representative B. F. Sisk (D., Calif.), regarding her call of last week. She had inquired on behalf of a constituent whether the Agency had ever employed a [] and whether there might be some death benefits to his heirs. I informed Ms. Clary that [] had never been employed by the Agency but he had applied in 1949. She was most appreciative of the assistance.

7. [] Called Jack Boos, House Select Committee on Intelligence staff, to inquire whether a telegram to Representative Lucien N. Nedzi (D., Mich.), which was in the envelope containing H. Res. 591 which I picked up last night, was there by mistake. He said it must have been a mistake and I offered to have the telegram brought back to him today. [] subsequently agreed to drop it by his office.

8. [] Advised George Berdes, Consultant on the Subcommittee on International Security and Scientific Affairs, House Committee on International Relations, that Carl Duckett, DDS&T, would be able to brief the Subcommittee on Wednesday, 23 July, at 2:00 p.m. and we would get together to make necessary support arrangements. In response to my query as to specific areas of interest beyond a general update of the Soviet forces, Berdes said he would send me a note. Berdes also mentioned the room acquired for the briefing would be H.227 in the Capitol.

9. [] Called Jack Boos, House Select Committee on Intelligence staff, on the outstanding Freedom of Information request concerning [] on which we need further identifying information. Boos said he has not received the needed information and we should consider the case closed for now. [] IRS, was advised.
